FX Solutions (www.fxsol.com), an IT-driven online foreign exchange broker auto-executing almost 99 percent of customer trades*, today introduced GTS Pro, a next-generation forex trading platform designed to meet the needs of today's currency traders.

GTS Pro offers forex traders a wide range of useful tools and functionality, including:

- Improved Forex Calculator - A single tool for margin, pip and premium calculations.
- One-Click Trading – Allows trades to be entered via a single-click from anywhere on the site.
- Ten Pre-Made Trading Screen Layouts – Offers traders multiple default trading screens, color variations and layouts. Traders can choose the layout that best fits their style and needs.
- Customizable "Workspaces" – Gives traders the ability to create the most efficient possible trading experiences based on their preferences for layout, color and other variables.
- Price Alarm – Provides traders with the ability to set an audible price alarm for any currency pair when a certain price is reached. Allows the use of personal sound files.
- ISP Health Monitor – Offers traders a real-time view of their internet service providers' performance, showing them potential problems before they are realized.
- Exportable Reporting – Exports reports as easy-to-use Excel files.
- Market News – Features the fastest available market news.
- Custom AccuCharts – In addition to its 150 indicators/oscillator variations, AccuCharts now features the ability to create custom indicators and powerful drawing tools.

"FX Solutions is the fastest growing online forex broker** because we are so committed to using technology to make traders more successful," said Robert Cortright, managing partner of FX Solutions. "With GTS Pro, we have further expanded our offering and given traders more tools to improve their trading experience. Our product development and technology teams are focused on creating the best possible trading experience and staying ahead of our competition. This new platform, combined with what we believe is the industry's most sophisticated pricing and execution, is why we believe in our tagline, 'Advantage, Trader.'"

In April 2007, FX Solutions received an investment in excess of $100 million from Francisco Partners of Menlo Park, California, a leading technology investment group.
